WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1869.

A Court of Appeal Wanted.

It is now more than three years since the necessity for a Court of Appeal was felt in this section of the Colony. It is more than six years since we strongly advocated the establishment of such a Court on the Mainland. During the period that has elapsed, the public have not been left without practical illustration of the necessity for such a Court. During two sessions of the Legislature attempts were made by the unofficial members to give effect to matured public opinion by making provision for the establishment of a Court of Appeal. On that, as on other occasions, however, Downing-street dictation prevailed, and the House was compelled, much against its judgment, to compromise the matter by accepting an imperfect measure. That measure confirmed the Judges in their positions and perpetuated the anomaly of two distinct systems of Judiciary in the two sections of the Colony. It was the ninth section of that Ordinance which was held out as a bid for unofficial votes. It reads as follows:—

"Either of the said Chief Justices may, at the request of the other Chief Justice, assist such other Chief Justice in hearing and determining all cases, civil and criminal, which such last-mentioned Chief Justice might have heard and determined, and for that purpose the Chief Justice for the time being rendering such assistance, shall have and exercise all the powers, authorities, and jurisdiction, which the Chief Justice to whom such assistance is rendered has and exercises, and he may sit either separately or together with the last-mentioned Chief Justice, as shall seem best to the said two Chief Justices for the due administration of justice."

In the course of debate the objection was urged that the provision being merely permissive, either Judge could decline to sit with the other. To this the Government members replied that it would be as much as the Commission of either Judge was worth to refuse to try a cause under that provision. Upon this assurance, the measure was reluctantly accepted by a section of the unofficial members, with the distinct understanding, however, that the whole House would join in a strong representation to the Imperial Government as to the necessity of concurrent jurisdiction and a Court of Appeal. The Bill was passed, and a milk-and-water sort of address was adopted. It has been found that the ninth clause has proved little better than a delusion and a snare. Under it Judge Needham gave way, after a sort, in respect of the celebrated Nicholson case; but in the more recent case of the Indian John, he refused point blank to invite Mr. Begbie to sit with him. Thus the assurance given to the unofficial members of the Legislature goes for nothing, and the clause is, for all purposes of appeal, practically inoperative. Recent events have been of such a character as to arouse even the members of the Bar to a sense of the necessity for immediate remedy, and they have joined in an address to the new Governor, setting forth the necessity for the establishment of a Court of Appeal, and pointing out the fact that the ninth section of the Ordinance, passed last session, has utterly failed in the great object of its promoters, viz., the bringing of contested matters before two Judges. This address will be presented to Mr. Musgrave, upon his arrival in the Colony. Now, this movement on the part of a class of gentlemen, hitherto chiefly remarkable for their forbearance and submission, is very well, and very important, as far as it goes; and one cannot avoid the impression, that the condition which produced combined and overt action in their case must indeed be a crying grievance. But the profession must be backed up by the whole body of the people. The cause is that of the people, even more than that of the profession. They are the real sufferers from the present condition of the Judiciary, and they should now, either by address, petition or resolutions, back up the action taken by the legal profession.

Great Churches of the World.

The great churches of the world are, first, the Roman Catholic, numbering 195,434,000; and the Russian Greek, numbering about 40,000,000; the remaining portions of the Greek and Eastern churches, probably 40,000,000 more, being too much broken up into sects and rival national churches to be here enumerated. There are about twenty millions Lutherans in Europe, but they are divided into as many national churches as there are petty German principalities or Scandinavian countries. From this vast population the Lutheran Church in America is receiving great accessions just now, by immigration, their increase last year having been eighteen thousand. The United Evangelical Church of Prussia, composed of the Reform and Lutheran Churches united by the State, has a population of over eleven and a half millions of nominal adherents; besides two and a half millions in other German territories.

The Church of England, although comprising the entire population, and supported by tithes drawn from the whole, now holds but a divided empire over the twenty millions of her population. None of the dissenting denominations can compare with her, however, in numbers, wealth and influence. Her church accommodations are 5,317,815, and her estimated church attendants are 3,773,475, while the accommodations of all the others combined amount to 4,894,618, and their estimated aggregate attendants to 3,487,556. Her membership is probably twelve to fifteen millions, and her revenue from twenty-five to thirty millions of dollars in gold.

The Presbyterian Church stands among the great churches of the world, both in the number and character of the population nominally embracing it. There are three and a half millions in Great Britain, principally in Scotland and Ireland, two millions in Holland, one and a half millions in Protestant Switzerland, and two millions in Austria and Russia. In Canada, Australia, and the Dutch Colonies, there are possibly half a million more, and in this country fairly three millions of the population may be reckoned to the different Presbyterian branches; making a Presbyterian population in the world of fourteen millions, nearly one-seventh of the entire Protestant population. If to these are added the fourteen millions of the United Evangelical Church of Prussia and the German States, which is Presbyterian in form, we should have a total of 28,000,000, the greatest numerical following of any of the Protestant forms of polity and belief. In the established Church of Prussia, it is second to the Anglican, among organized denominations.—American Presbyterian.

Irish Republican Convention.

The Irish National Republican Convention has been in session at Chicago. It adjourned sine die on the 6th having sat two days. The platform of principles adopted pledges the full support of the Irish Republicans to the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. Also declaring that the right of suffrage should be extended to all citizens of the Republic, without regard to sex, race or previous condition. 2d, Loyalty to the American Republic is the first political duty of the Irish citizen of this country. 3d, It is a duty we owe to ourselves and the oppressed people of the earth to spread the principles of freedom. 4th, Asks for the oppressed people of Ireland and Cuba, and for the downtrodden people of all countries and lands the sympathy and support of the people and Government of the United States. 5th, Protests against the presence of armed despots in Europe or on this continent, and hearty co-operation for any plan for their removal. 6th, Tenders thanks to Senators Sumner and Chandler for their position on the Alabama claims and declares their readiness to stand by the Government in insisting upon ample apology for the wrongs committed and reparation of losses. 7th, Pronounces against free trade and in favour of protection. 8th, Encourages Irish immigrants to cultivate the soil instead of congregating in large cities. 9th, Pledges President Grant a cordial and earnest support. Subsequent resolutions ask Congress to pass a general law allowing foreigners to become citizens after one year's residence, and restricting the States from placing any impediment to the speedy naturalization of such persons. The resolution in favor of female suffrage elicited a warm debate and was carried. Michael Scanlon was chosen President of the Executive Committee.

The Willows.—The proprietor of the Willows has just completed a platform for dancing, at their grounds, measuring 30x40 feet. It is built between two gigantic oaks, and perfectly shaded from the rays of the sun; and in another enormous tree are seats for the orchestra, raised about 10 feet from the ground. The whole structure is very creditable to the enterprising proprietor, and the public have only to visit the Willows, on the Cadboro Bay Road, to become satisfied that it is the pleasantest place near Victoria to enjoy oneself.

NEW STEAMER.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Co. are about to build a first class winter boat, to take the place of the Wilson G. Hunt. She will be built on the Sound, and will be commenced immediately. Surely no better indication is required that the trade between Victoria and the Sound is on the increase, than the fact that such men as compose this company should make such an investment of capital, in view of such powerful competition now in the field.

THE FUNERAL.—We have been requested to mention that the funeral of the late Mrs. Wallace will take place to-day. It will leave the residence of the mother of the deceased, Hillside, at 2 p.m., proceeding to Christ Church, where service will be held, leaving Christ Church at 3 o'clock and proceeding to the Cemetery. Friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to attend.

WINE.—It is said that the U. S. Customs authorities are about to remove the restrictive order requiring goods passing through a Foreign port to be wired. The restriction so far proved very injurious to the interests of the steamboat companies on this coast, which are all Americans.

THE ORIFLAMME.—It will be seen that this steamer arrived at Portland on Sunday evening, and will sail for this place to-day. The Committee of Ways and Means and other prominent Americans will be on board.

CHANGE OF SECRETARY.—Mr. W. C. Siffin, has been appointed Secretary to the Spring Ridge Water Co. vice Mr. N. J. Neustadt, who has accepted a situation on the str. G. S. Wright, as Purser.

POSTPONED.—The argument in the Rosalia case was postponed yesterday, on account of the illness of the Chief Justice. It will be resumed to-day.

BAND OF L'ASTREE.—This Band will play on Col. Foster's wharf, at Esquimalt, on this and to-morrow evening, commencing at 5 o'clock.

FOR THE SOUND.—The str. Wilson G. Hunt, Capt. Hunt, will sail for Olympia and the ports on the Sound to-morrow morning, at 5 o'clock.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER.—The str. Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, sailed for New Westminster yesterday at 12 o'clock noon. She had a few passengers, and 30 tons of freight.

POLICE COURT.—There were two cases before this Court yesterday. A hog charged with stealing a bridge, postponed for two days; and a man for keeping a ferocious dog; dismissed.

FOR OLYMPIA.—The str. Eliza Anderson will sail for Olympia and the way ports on the Sound to-day at 12 o'clock noon.

DUTIES ON COPPER AND COPPER ORES.—The following circular, issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, has just been received by the Collector of Customs of this port, and is the full text of the Act regulating the duties on imported copper and copper ores:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That from and after the passage of this act, in lieu of the duties hitherto imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, there shall be levied, collected and paid on the articles herein enumerated and provided for, imported from foreign countries, the following specified duties and rates of duty, that is to say: On all copper imported in the form of ores, three cents on each pound of fine copper contained therein; on all regulus of copper, and on all black or coarse copper, four cents on each pound of fine copper contained therein; on all old copper, fit only for manufacture, four cents per pound; on all copper in plates, bars, ingots, pigs, and in other forms not manufactured or herein enumerated, including sulphate of copper or blue vitriol, five cents per pound; on copper in rolled plates, called brazier's copper, sheets, rods, pipes, and copper bottoms, eyelets, and all manufactures of copper, or of which copper shall be a component of chief value, not otherwise herein provided for, forty-five per centum ad valorem;

Provided, That the increased duty imposed by this Act shall not apply to any of the articles herein enumerated which shall have been in course of transit to the United States, and actually on shipboard on the nineteenth of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine.—San Francisco Bulletin.

THE "NOBLE ART" IN A NEW SCENE.—Mr. Thomas Sayers, son of the pugilist has come out as a comic vocalist, and appears at the music halls "wearing the costume in which his father fought the memorable battle of Farnborough."

Editorial Notes.

It is impossible to read the bigoted and intolerant utterances of both clergy and laity in England and Ireland, in opposition to Mr. Gladstone's bill, without coming to the conclusion that the Irish establishment has out-lived its usefulness. Certainly it is wounded more in the house of its professed friends than in that of its so-called enemies. Among other amiable expressions, the Rev. J. Flanagan said, "if the Queen were induced by the Royal signature to place the Bill, no Englishman or Irishman could deny that Her Majesty had perjured herself." The Rev. Mr. Carter got off the following:—"If Barrett was executed for blowing up a prison, the time might not be far distant when, for attempting to blow up our venerable Protestant Constitution, Gladstone and his co-conspirators might be hanged as high as Haman." It is disestablishment coming any too soon?

Cholera has broken out with great virulence at Bathurst, the seat of the government in Gambia, a British Colony in Western Africa. Admiral Patey, the administrator of the Government, had, in anticipation of the disease, taken every precaution for its prevention or mitigation, notwithstanding which, however, about 200 deaths had occurred in eleven days, a pretty large rate for a population of 4000. The deaths were almost entirely confined to natives, amongst whom it created a perfect panic. The disease appears to be of the most virulent type, three or four hours being the longest attack, while some dropped dead in as many minutes.

The Franco-American Atlantic submarine cable is over 3,000 miles in length, and is understood to have been laid without the occurrence of a single accident. According to a Brest despatch of the 6th the Great Eastern had arrived in American waters, and all well. As soon as the big ship has completed this work she will return to Sheerness and commence preparations for receiving the Anglo-Indian cable, which is to be laid between Suez, Aden, and Bombay, and is about the same length as the Franco-American cable. The Great Eastern appears to have found useful employment at last—employment for which she appears to be pre-eminently adapted.

It will be recollected that the announcement of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales having been initiated into the Masonic Order by the King of Sweden was received with wry faces by English Masons; it was even intimated that the lodge which the Prince had joined was not one of unexceptionable Masonic pedigree. All this, however, has been put an end to by the formal announcement just made in the Grand Lodge by the Earl of Zetland, that the Prince is a Freemason. His Royal Highness desires, Lord Zetland states, to join an English lodge, and is to be at once invested with the rank of Grand Past Master, as is customary in cases of his exalted birth. This, adds a London paper, is a feather—nay, three feathers—in the cap of Masonry.

A very unhappy accident occurred at a recent riot in Flintshire, England. The riot Act was read, the military were called out, and after being pelted by the infuriated mob they were ordered to fire. As is usual in such cases, they fired high; but while the guilty parties escaped all harm, the bullets showered down amongst a crowd of more distant and wholly innocent on-lookers, killing a well-conducted girl of nineteen. It is suggested that in future when the military find it necessary to fire on rioters they should have orders to fire low, instead of high.

The imposing ceremony of formally opening the Suez Canal is to take place in October, and it is understood that the Viceroy of Egypt will entertain his guests with unprecedented magnificence. On the banks of the canal are to be erected lodges, constructed, fitted, and decorated so as to be reproductive of the characteristics of the several countries to which the guests belong. Public amusements, theatres, circuses, balls, and fetes are to be provided for the recreation of the assemblage, which promises to be as brilliant as varied in its character. It is expected that the Empress of the French will attend in person; if this be the case, the Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria will be present. The heir-presumptive of the Italian Crown will represent King Victor Emmanuel; the King of Prussia will send a member of the Royal family; and the Prince of Wales will represent Queen Victoria.

It would appear to be necessary to administer another chastisement to the Abyssinians; but whether the British Government will care to repeat so soon so very expensive an operation as that which brought the late proud Theodore to the ground, and brought so much glory (!) to the National Arms, remains "an open question." It appears that Mr. Thomas Powell, a Monmouthshire magistrate and wealthy colliery proprietor, who went on a shooting excursion to Abyssinia, some months ago, has been murdered by the natives together with his wife and child. His servants and two missionaries are said also to have been murdered at the same time.

The impression has gained ground in some quarters that Mr. Musgrave is still in Newfoundland, and in all probability will remain there until that province is Confederated. This impression has not the slightest foundation in fact. There is every reason for believing that Mr. Musgrave is on his way out, and he may arrive here almost any day. The only reference to the subject in Eastern exchanges is a paragraph in the Toronto Globe of the 17th June, and which reached us last week. We did not allude to it at that time, because we considered it quite unimportant; but, inasmuch as an entirely incorrect version has attained publicity it may be well to publish the paragraph in question. After noticing the death of Governor Seymour and the appointment of Mr. Musgrave, our trans-continental contemporary says:

"In consequence of Mr. Musgrave's approaching departure, Mr. Carter, Attorney-General of Newfoundland, who was on a visit to Ottawa, has been called home. He sails by the Nestorian from Quebec on Saturday."

Now it is plain that if the above justifies the inference that Mr. Musgrave was at Newfoundland when he received the appointment it surely equally justifies the inference that he would leave the province at once. On the 14th June Mr. Hankin telegraphed to Lord Granville the death of Governor Seymour, and in rather less than twenty-four hours he was in receipt of His Lordship's reply, announcing the appointment of Mr. Musgrave, and stating that he would leave immediately. There is reason for thinking that Mr. Musgrave was in London at the time; but whether in London or Newfoundland, one thing would appear to be perfectly clear, and that is that he would leave immediately for this Colony.

Our telegram gives an account of a very extraordinary scene in an English court. A Lord taken before the magistrate for assault, and a free fight in court, wherein the Magistrate's tables were turned, if not against him, at least before his astonished eyes!

SALE OF PICTURES.—Sir Edwin Landseer has sold the "Swannery invaded by Sea Eagles," to the Marquis of Northampton, for 4,000 guineas; and Mr. Millais's "Vanessa" has been bought for £700.

ADMIRAL SIR GEORGE LAMBART.—On the evening of June 5th, the venerable Admiral died suddenly in the billiard-room of the United Service Club, Pall Mall, while looking at two members playing.

QUICK TIME.—Express goods have been received at the London House which left London in May. They consist of the new Windermere, Loch Lomond, Killarney, and Baden Costumes, worn in one piece; Trimmings and Buttons of latest style; Bonnets and Hats as worn this summer in Paris; Ribbons; Japanese Silks, and fancy goods.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

EUROPE.

LONDON, July 8.—Lord Carlington was up before the police court to-day, charged with assaulting and provoking Frewill and Murray to fight a duel. The trouble between these gentlemen arose from certain articles said to have been written by Murray, for the Examiner. Lord Carlington was bound over to keep the peace, and held to bail on a second commitment. After these proceedings, a disgraceful and remarkably scene occurred in the court room. The partisans of Murray, who were present in great force, attempted to seize a box of papers which had been stolen. In the melee which ensued, blows were freely exchanged and the magistrate's table overturned. Twelve policemen were called in and order restored.

This morning's Star says the British people have no right to indulge the Peers without depriving them of the luxury of being just. Hardly one of the amendments to the (Irish Church) Bill agreed upon by the House of Lords can be tolerated by the country.

BREST, July 7.—Up to Wednesday noon, the Great Eastern had made 1639 knots from Brest and had paid out 1740 knot of cable. The heavy sea was going down and the signals were good.

MADRID, July 7.—There are fresh complications in regard to the Ministry, and it is likely the whole Cabinet will resign.

LONDON, July 9.—The Times to-day, observes that the spirit in which the House of Commons lately discussed the Trades Union Bill, speaks volumes for an exact, impartial, and exhaustive inquiry. The increased attention given to the subject is not the effect of the pressure of the Union leaders in legislation; but is due to greater knowledge and wider experience of the members. Although the Bill is not liable to pass, the provisions it contains will form the basis for Government measures to be introduced at the next Session, which will repeal all law making combination illegal; release working men from special penalties for Trades Union Officers; and bring their company funds within the provision of the Friendly Societies Act. The Times in conclusion says, the Trades Unions will continue to exist, whether protected by Parliament or not, and that true statesmanship will seek neither to augment or reduce their influence. But accepting them as fair, give them free scope for legitimate development.

The Birmingham Chamber of Commerce have petitioned against the Trades Union Bill. The petition takes the ground that the propositions of the Bill lead to remove the protection against the intimidation hitherto possessed by the masters.

The expedition, with the Bermuda Floating Dock, touched at Porto Sante, and made the Island on the 4th of June, and then proceeded in good condition.

GOR. W. D. MUSGRAVE, of Newfoundland, has been appointed to succeed the late Governor Seymour, of British Columbia.

Senor Rances has been appointed Minister from Spain to Great Britain.

LONDON, July 8.—The News to-day, in an article on the International yacht race, says, there are no yachts, not counting schooners, except the Cambria, which have proved themselves worthy to try their metal with the Dauntless, or any American antagonist across the Atlantic. It says, the nice questions of admeasurement should not impose any serious difficulty, and suggests that the English scale be accepted in England and the American waters.

PARIS, July 9.—The Pays to-day says, the Emperor has written a letter, from which it quotes the following declaration in regard to the Corps Legislatif. "On the 19th of January I committed a great fault by accepting with a majority. I have cause to regret with regret my sentiments towards it. All my efforts should tend to regain its confidence." The Pays don't give the address or date of letter.

OREGON.

PORTLAND, July 13.—The str. Oriflamme arrived on Sunday night, at 7 o'clock, and will sail for Victoria and Puget Sound to-morrow.

The Committee of Ways and Means have also arrived here.

Canadian Mail Summary.

Our Canadian files are to the 26th June. On the 22nd the Governor proceeded to the Senate Chamber, where His Excellency commanded the attendance of the House of Commons. After assenting in Her Majesty's name to seventy-three Acts, and announcing that he reserved for the signature of Her Majesty's pleasure, two bills (viz., one respecting the salary of the Governor-General; and one for the relief of J. H. Stevenson), His Excellency proceeded to prorogue Parliament till the 31st July. We quote the following passage from the speech:

"In addition to the long list of measures and amendments on subjects of internal policy, which have passed under your notice, your records show that memorable steps have been taken towards the accomplishment of the great scheme of uniting the whole of British North America in a single Confederation. You have sanctioned the arrangement entered into in London by the Imperial Government, in reference to the North-West Territory. That wide expanse will, I hope, ere long be opened to settlement, and become the abode of myriads of thriving and industrious immigrants. The terms of the delegates from Newfoundland, which it may be expected will prove acceptable to the people of that Island, have met with your concurrence. The basis has been laid for negotiations with the Government of Prince Edward's Island. Moreover, what is not of less importance, seeing that the good will of the people already within the Dominion is a matter perhaps of greater, at least of equal concern with the acquisition of new territories, you have adopted the precautions of timely and well-considered liberality in order to satisfy reasonable demands and conciliate attachment in Nova Scotia."

An arrest of a very singular character took place at St. Henry, about nine miles from Quebec. It appears that two gentlemen, recently from France, and both colporteurs of the French Canadian Missionary Society, were arrested at the instance of a priest, for having sold a copy of the New Testament to him. Although no fine was imposed, one of the parties was mulcted in $6, costs. It is stated that influential gentlemen in Montreal will take the matter up, insist upon a thorough enquiry, and have legal proceedings instituted against all concerned. The union of all the Masonic bodies in Nova Scotia was effected on the 23rd, under the name of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia. Hon. Alex. Keith, President of the Legislative Council, was elected Grand Master. A. A. Stevenson, Grand Master of Canada, presided. At the installation ceremonies, which took place on the 24th, six hundred Masons walked in procession to St. Paul's Church, where religious services were held. The annual meeting of the Ontario Rifle Association took place at Toronto, commencing on the 22nd, at which there appears to have been some excellent shooting. The best shooting on the third day was made by Mr. McKelcan, of Hamilton, who made four bull's-eyes and a centre at 300 yards. A company of the 78th Highlanders arrived at Halifax on the 23rd. Large crowds assembled to witness the landing, and accompanied them to their barracks. Miss Rye arrived at Montreal on the 22nd, with 100 girls, 8 boys and 6 families. Ten girls were left at Montreal, and of these 9 got situations in an hour. Miss Rye proceeded west with the others, and they were snatched up more eagerly than any previous lot, and the Globe thinks the sooner that lady returns with another batch the better. It was rumoured that Sir George E. Cartier would return to England shortly, and remain there till next session. It was reported that Mr. Howe was dissatisfied with his position in the Government, and will probably seek refuge in the Lieutenant-Governorship of Newfoundland. The Hon. W. McDougall, C.B., will visit the North-West Territory during the summer, and will probably be accompanied by the Commissioner of Public Works for Ontario. On the last day but one of the Session, Sir J. A. McDonald said the correspondence with the Imperial Government in respect to the Intercolonial loan was not yet in a form to be laid before the House. Mr. Dawson was organizing a large working party, and was about to return to Fort William to push forward the road. The highest rate of wages was $1 a day and board.

English Mail Summary.

Minister Motley had been keeping himself very quiet, affording a very marked contrast to his dinner-eating, speech-making predecessor. He was staying with Charles Dickens, at Gad's Hill. The Guardian, referring to the Rev. Ashton Oxenden, the new Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan of Canada, says: "The choice of the electors has fallen on a man of moderate principles, of high character, and of good repute for the service he has rendered to the Church by his devotional works. Sectional influences have not prevailed; local partisanship has suffered a defeat. Moreover, the representatives of each view feel that their sentiments have had free expression, and that the final choice, whether agreeable to themselves or not, is at all events the deliberate voice of the duly elected representatives of the Church. It would be difficult, as it seems to us, for those who maintain the superiority of our English system, to prove that the whole process of choosing a Bishop here is more free from objectionable elements, or more satisfactory in its result." According to a Paris correspondent of the Independence Belge, the future King of Spain has at length been found. He is no other than the young Italian Prince, Thomas, Duke of Genoa, who is at present studying at Harrow. Prim, Serrano and Topete are said to have agreed to propose this new candidate to the Cortes, and they are also said to have obtained the consent of King Victor Emmanuel and of the Florence Cabinet. As Prince Thomas was born on February 6, 1854, and is therefore not yet sixteen years of age, there will be a Regency of two years before he begins to reign. A Fenian demonstration took place in the Cork Athenaeum on June 7, on the occasion of a lecture and recitation being given. Seditious poetry was recited by a person named O'Connor, who described himself as "an Irishman, hoping and trusting for the day when—" The significant pause was received with loud cheers, and the audience stood up and uncovered while the lecturer recited, "Who fears to speak of ninety-eight?" and received the opening line of "God's curse upon the Saxon" with a vigorous "Amen." At the close of the proceedings the whole assembly sang the Fenian anthem, "God save Ireland." A vote of thanks to the lecturer was proposed by Mr. O'Mahony, a released Fenian. Some detectives in the room were denounced and threatened.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING KANT'S IMPERIAL CORDED SOAP.—1st. For an ordinary washing (from three to four dozen pieces) dissolve one-eighth pound of soap in sufficient boiling water to cover well your white clothes. Pour it over the clothes and let them soak thirty minutes, stirring them occasionally. If the water is hard use a little more soap.

2nd. When soaked, wring them out, rub a little soap upon the soiled parts, and put them into the boiler with sufficient water to boil them, having first dissolved one-eighth pound of soap in the water, and boil them ten or fifteen minutes, then wring them well, in warm water and rinse in cold water, blue and hang out to dry.

3rd. Should there be any articles not thoroughly cleansed, rub the soiled places with a little soap, and replace them in the boiler and boil a few minutes longer.

4th. For colored or woollen clothes use the same as common soap.
